Hiten Pabari

BDS MFDS RCS (Eng)
MClintDent MRD RCS (Ed)
Specialist in Prosthodontics

Edward J Sammut

BChD MSc MFDS RCS (Ed)
MClintDent MRD RCS (Ed)
Specialist in Periodontics

Hiten graduated from Guy's, King's and St Thomas' Dental Institute, London in 2003. He worked as a Senior House Officer at Basildon University Hospital and then spent four years working in general dental practice in London whilst training to become a specialist. He completed specialist training in Prosthodontics at Guy's Hospital, London. Whilst completing his specialist training he has worked for and trained under world renowned Implant and Restorative Clinicians. In 2007 Hiten was appointed as the youngest Associate Specialist in Restorative Dentistry at St. George's Hospital, London where he practiced all restorative modalities on a referral basis. Hiten achieved the Astra Tech® Prosthodontics and has obtained his Membership in Restorative Dentistry from the Royal College of Surgeons (Edinburgh). In 2009, he was accepted on the GDC Specialist Register for Prosthodontics. Hiten enjoys teaching restorative dentistry to dentists at postgraduate courses on Implants for the London Deanery. He currently holds the position of Specialist Clinical Teacher in Restorative Dentistry at Guy's Hospital.

Edward qualified in 2001 after a two-year residency in Oral Surgery and Restorative Dentistry. Edward worked for one year at the prestigious Edinburgh Postgraduate Dental Institute. During this time he obtained his Membership of the Faculty of Dental Surgery, RCS Edinburgh. In 2005, Edward commenced the four year specialist training programme in Periodontology at Guy's, King's and St Thomas' Dental Institute and obtained his MSc and MClintDent in Periodontology, both with distinction. He also obtained the Membership in Restorative Dentistry from the Royal College of Surgeons in Edinburgh and has been awarded his CCST for entry to the GDC Specialist Register in Periodontology. Edward has won the Astra Tech® Periodontology Award for the implant case presented for his specialist exams. Edward has been appointed as a Postgraduate Clinical Teacher at KCL Guy's campus, guiding students towards the MClintDent in Periodontology. He is a member of the British Society of Periodontology, the European Federation of Periodontology, the International Team for Implantology (ITI) and the Dental Society of London.
